The heart of Tokyo!
TOKYO SKYTREE®, boasting the world’s tallest free-standing broadcast tower at 634 m in height.

360-degree Tokyo night views from two observatories at 350 and 450 meters above ground are a must-see. The lighting of the tower itself also changes day by day.

The entire TOKYO SKYTREE TOWN® is one of Tokyo’s best night view spots.

1. See the lighting right up close
   Solamachi Square
   TOKYO SKYTREE TOWN’s Solamachi Square on the 1st floor is the best place to get an up-close view of the SKYTREE.

2. Immerse yourself in night views in two observatories
   TOKYO SKYTREE
   Tembo Deck / Tembo Galleria
   The Tembo Deck at 350 m above ground, and the Tembo Galleria at 450 m, are night view highlights. The Tembo Galleria especially has dazzling lights that really set the mood.
   - 8:00–22:00 (Entry until 21:00 for the Tembo Deck and 21:20 for the Tembo Galleria)
   - Open everyday
   - 2,100 yen for Tembo Deck, +1,000 yen for Tembo Galleria

3. Train and TOKYO SKYTREE® collaboration
   Genmorï Bridge
   This is a popular spot for taking photos of the entire TOKYO SKYTREE®. Take the perfect, romantic shot of the tower and the lingering light of the Tobu SKYTREE Line train as it runs along the base of the tower.

   Experience a night view of Tokyo from 155m up
   SKYTREE TERRACE TOURS
   A guided tour for you to get outdoor views from a height of 155 m. Enjoy views of Tokyo through the steel frames of the SKYTREE. Unlike seeing it through the glass, you will be overwhelmed to see dynamic views while experiencing the breezes, lights, and sounds of Tokyo.
   - Held 12 times a day between 11:30–18:00 on weekdays (Check the website for the schedule)
   - 2,500 yen for guided tours
Tokyo’s night sky brilliantly adorned

Check out these three lighting events!

All-LED lights are turned on every day, from sunset to midnight. Three lighting themes are used depending on the day: the pale blue “Iki,” the royal purple and gold leaf image “Miyabi,” and the citrus-orange themed “Nobori.” Special lighting themes are also used for events.

*Lightings are subject to change

Jikken Bridge 十間橋

At Jikken Bridge near Oshiage Station, you can see the “Upside-Down Tree” reflected in the surface of the water. This is also a popular spot for taking clear photos of the entire SKYTREE.

Stay up late!

TOKYO SKYTREE TOWN®

東京スカイツリータウン®

There are many entertainment spots around the TOKYO SKYTREE®, including the commercial facility Tokyo Solamachi® and the Sumida Aquarium. The seasonal and event-based lightings are also a must-see.

The Sumida River Bridge spans the area between Asakusa and TOKYO SKYTREE®. It is lit up every day from sundown until the last train, giving the area around the Sumida River a romantic glow. Its lights have the same colors as TOKYO SKYTREE®: “Iki,” “Miyabi,” and “Nobori.” There are also special illuminations to match seasonal events like Christmas and the cherry blossom festival. Photo shows the view from the Sumida Park, Asakusa side.

A Soothing Space to be Moved by a Starry Sky

Konica Minolta Planetarium “TENKU”

A planetarium for adults beckons you to a pleasant universe of stars, with 3D acoustics and images, and original aromas. The colors of the stars are recreated more richly and in greater detail, using the latest projectors. All kinds of programs are featured. You can enjoy the show more in relaxing crescent-shaped seats. ● Check the website for the viewing schedule ● Open everyday ● 1,500 yen or more

A whole ocean world inside TOKYO SKYTREE TOWN® Sumida Aquarium

Located on the 5th and 6th floors of TOKYO SKYTREE TOWN. You can encounter sea creatures in 8 areas, including Japan’s largest-scale indoor open fish tank, where Magellan penguins swim freely, and the grand Tokyo fish tank, with its theme of the ocean around the Ogasawara Islands. At night the lights in the aquarium turn blue, creating a completely different mood from the daytime. ● 9:00–21:00 (Entry until 20:00) ● Open everyday ● 2,050 yen
Tokyo Tower, the Symbol of Tokyo

The standout orange-and-white themed Tokyo Tower lights are an indispensable part of the Tokyo night skyline. The views of city lights seen from the observation deck are also superb.

Tokyo Metropolitan Government Building South Observatory

Enigmatic nightscape drawn by a ring
Shinjuku Station West Exit Stroll through viewing spots

There’s more!
Observatory floor and skyscraper restaurant areas

The South Observatory is a great viewing spot, free to the public and 202m above ground. Look out over the unique Shinjuku night skyline, at the row of triangular roofs that form Shinjuku Park Tower, and the Metropolitan Expressway. South Observatory 9:30-23:00 (Last Admission 22:30) Closed on the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays (Closed on the following day if Tuesday is a national holiday.) Closed December 29-31, January 2, 3 and during legal inspections Free

The Shinjuku Station West Exit area, full of unique buildings, is a treasure house of metropolitan, dramatic nightscapes. There are also many skyscraper restaurants that are not to be missed!

The West Shinjuku Sign Ring acts as a traffic light and sign, and at night, it combines with the skyscrapers and LOVE sculpture to quickly morph into an illuminated work of art. We recommend entering the ring and walking around to look at the surrounding area.

There are many skyscrapers around the Shinjuku Station West Exit that have restaurants, izakaya, and bars on the top floors, where you can see night skyline views. Spend a lovely evening surrounded by city lights while you enjoy a delicious meal.
Shinjuku Station East Exit, Pulsing with Energy

The nightscape of the east exit area is energetic, with spots like Kabukicho and Golden-gai, packed with restaurants and bars. This night spot looks great in bright, pure colors.

Classic Tokyo nightlife neighborhood
Shinjuku Kabukicho

Kabukicho, Japan’s most prominent pleasure quarter. Everywhere you look there are restaurants, bars, and entertainment establishments like cinemas and bowling alleys. As the sun goes down, dazzling billboards of red, blue, and orange light up and the town comes to life with an appeal that isn’t there in the daytime.

Impressively surprising sight!
Godzilla head (Shinjuku Toho Building)

Now there’s a new famous spot in Shinjuku: a life-sized Godzilla head on top of the Shinjuku Toho Building. Not only is it lit up at night, it plays the Godzilla theme song in every hour, roars, and breathes beams of light.

Shinjuku Station East Exit Area Map

Enjoy a refined atmosphere on the promenade stretching out from the south exit of Shinjuku Station. With a row of fashionable shops and bakeries, it also features dazzling illumination in winter.

The Heart of Tokyo!
Ginza, Yurakucho, Tokyo Station area

This area, where the iconic buildings and streets of Tokyo converge, is the birthplace of activity and trends. Catch a glimpse of the true face of the Tokyo of today, a blend of tradition and the cutting edge.
1. Retro Western architecture and clock tower landmarks
   Ginza Yonchome Intersection
   The center of Ginza lies at the intersection of Ginza Dori, the Main Street of Ginza since the Edo period, and Harumi Dori. The main building of Wako features a rooftop clock tower that is a classic Tokyo landmark. This area is packed with traditional specialty shops and brand-name stores.

2. Kabuki theatre that opened in 1889
   Kabukiza Theatre
   A theater for Kabuki, a traditional Japanese performance. An authentic Japanese building with its tiled roof, white plaster walls, red lacquered handrails, and the entrance with karahafu (a type of gable) impressively illuminated.

3. Experience nature in the city
   GINZA SIX Garden
   GINZA SIXガーデン
   This garden is located on the rooftop of Ginza Six, one of the Ginza area’s largest complex business facilities. Covered with 4,000 m² of greenery, you can relax in this urban oasis.
   ● 7:00–23:00 ● No scheduled holidays ● Free

4. A space of relaxation where you can see night views of Ginza
   Tokyu Plaza Ginza KIRIKO TERRACE
   東急プラザ銀座 キリコテラス
   An open, outdoor space located about 56 m aboveground. From the waterside and the green side, one can command panoramic views of glittering Ginza.

Ueno and Akihabara

The Ueno area with the mood of the good old days wafting through the air, and Akihabara Electric Town with its dazzling and glittering neon lights. Enjoy the closeness of these two vastly different neighborhoods.

Be engulfed in neon as you stroll through the town
Akihabara Electric Town 秋葉原電気街

Japan’s leading electric town grew up while responding to the needs of each era, from radios to amateur radios, to consumer electronics, to audio equipment, to games. Visited by tourists from all over the world throughout the year. The chaotic feel of shops lined up cheek by jowl completely changes in the evening. Flashy electric billboards glitter with light, seeming to drown out the darkness, giving you a night scene that can only be found in Akihabara.

An arcade overflowing with people
Ameyoko Market 上野アメ横

A shopping arcade overflowing with energy, as the high-spirited voices of bargain sales and hawkers fly about. With all kinds of stores, from fresh seafood to clothing to general goods, this place is well-loved as a favorite sightseeing spot typical of Ueno. There are many izakaya in the area as well, and their liveliness is unceasing from morning to night.

Outdoor stage at the edge of the pond
Shinobazu Pond 上野不忍池

A pond located in Ueno Park. Lush lotuses seem to conceal the surface of the water, and their large flowers bloom between mid-July and mid-August. Bentendo floats in the center, with a spectacular nighttime illumination showing a beautiful scene within the darkness. You can also enjoy a ride in a swan boat during the day, until sunset.
Stroll Through Asakusa, Glittering with Japanese

Asakusa, where you can enjoy a Japanese atmosphere, is extremely popular even with foreign tourists. The path from Kaminarimon Gate to Sensoji Temple is dimly lit at night, and is known for being full of a different kind of charm from the daytime.

1. A quietly glittering, retro bridge
   Azumabashi Bridge 吾妻橋
   The Azumabashi Bridge, spanning the Sumida River, is illuminated. Board a waterbus to enjoy views of the bridge, TOKYO SKYTREE®, and the object on the roof of the Super Dry Hall.
   *The repair work will be completed in March 2020.

2. A massive paper lantern 4 m high and weighing 700 kg
   Kaminarimon Gate 雷門
   Kaminarimon Gate at the entrance to Sensoji Temple is lit up in warm tones. The great paper lantern is lit up, as well as the statues of the wind and thunder gods standing on either side. This impressive look is a must-see.

3. See the “Asakusa Picture Scroll” at night
   Nakamise Shopping Street 仲見世通り
   The closed shutters of stores create an “Asakusa Picture Scroll” depicting scenes of Asakusa’s history and the four seasons. At night, we recommend a stroll through the area, looking at the picture scrolls adorned in pale light.

A cluster of unique little restaurants at a corner of Kabukicho

Shinjuku Golden-gai 新宿ゴールデン街

What started as a post-war black market eventually grew into a neighborhood of restaurants and bars famous as a gathering spot for writers and actors. It still has about 280 storefronts, and continues to be a place for people to gather and chat. Enjoy a sense of time travel as you walk among the illuminated, retro signboards.

Hidden streets

Introducing some hidden little spots for the adults of Tokyo to gather as they are, have a drink, and chat.

A total of 19 bars in one back street

Ebisu Yokocho 恵比寿横丁

A 5-minute walk from Ebisu Station, this area is crammed with izakaya specializing in grilled skewers, Kyoto-style oden, okonomiyaki, and other items. It occupies the former site of a successful shopping arcade called “Yamashita Shopping Center.” It’s popular for retaining the feel of an old-style bar street while being located in the trendy Ebisu neighborhood.

Shimbashi is well-known as a place where workers gather on their way home from work. The place to be is under the elevated railway tracks between Yurakucho and Shimbashi Stations, an area lined with everything from inexpensive pubs for the masses to more stylish izakaya. There are also a lot of charming bars and restaurants under the tracks by Yurakucho Station.
Nostalgic and common shopping arcades
Akabane Ichibangai and OK Yokochō

This mid-20th century retro shopping arcade is a collection of about 100 shops, centered around a 400 m-long main street that stretches north from the east exit of Akabane Station. One section is a bar district called OK Yokochō, featuring about 30 izakaya and snack bars lined up in a narrow alleyway. Many popular shops are found along the avenue called Silk Road. Enjoy an evening tucked away in a hidden corner of Tokyo.

An old house is born again
Tokyo Otsuka Norengai

It was created along the Tokyo Sakura Tram (Toden Arakawa Line), which is a one-minute walk from Otsuka Station. The elegant shops decorated with noren curtains are part of a renovated old Japanese house that had been vacant. With grilled skewers, gyoza, snack bars, and other categories, this is a great spot for barhopping.

For adults to relax

Monjayaki is a typical flavor of downtown Tokyo. This street that runs straight from Tsukishima Station is chock full of monjayaki shops. Each shop has its own specialty, from standard monja to pollack roe to curry to Italian. Try them all, with a beer on the side.
