

Bronze Statue Map

Half Time

- a Craftwork by artisans in Katsushika City is sold directly at "Dento Sangyo Kaikan." A craftwork class is held once a month.
- b The shrine crest is a three-footed yatai garasu (a mythical raven). The yatai garasu, enclosed in a pentagon, has achieved fame as the logo of the Japanese national football team.
- c In 1914, a large celluloid factory was established in this area, which resulted in the development of surrounding areas as a celluloid industry town. "The Kowpie Doll" is a famous example of a celluloid doll.

Half Time

- There is a "Captain TSUBASA" wrapping bus runs on the Okudo Kaido Road connecting Tateishi and Yotsugi.

5 Statue of Nakagawa Samao
Samao fell in love with Ozora Tsubasa at first sight, and supports the football team to cheer for him as a member of the cheerleading team with her strong leadership skills.
7min.

6 Statue of Misaki Taro
Together Ozora Tsubasa and Misaki Taro are called the Golden Combi. He is as good a player as Tsubasa and supports the team with his unparalleled skills during a crunch.
7min.

7 Statue of Ozora Tsubasa (Heel Hit)
A child of football who dreams of studying in Brazil aiming to become a professional football player with the goal of being the world's best for Japan. "Ball is a friend" is a creed.
15min.

8 Statue of Wasabayashi Genzo
It is the first rival of Ozora Tsubasa a ally who aims to be the world's number one representative of Japan. "Be sure to stop shooting from outside the penalty area" is a creed.
5min.

9 Statue of (Twin shoot) Ozora Tsubasa
Fully reproduce the famous scene of the original!
If you hit a shoot piece instead of "Misaki-Taro", you will be a golden combination with "Ozora Tsubasa".
5min.

9 Statue of (Twin shoot) Ozora Tsubasa
Fully reproduce the famous scene of the original!
If you hit a shoot piece instead of "Misaki-Taro", you will be a golden combination with "Ozora Tsubasa".
5min.

Katsushika City original illustration of Takahashi Yoichi

Fan must see Tsubasa appeared against the background of real Katsushika!!

In the land of "Captain TSUBASA" about

At Tateishi Station, a signboard that is the land of connection is welcome!

Faithfully reproduce the scene in the diorama of "Nankatsu City"

Access to the land associated with "Captain TSUBASA"

"Captain TSUBASA" wrapping bus is in operation!

- Keisei Town Bus
  - [Shinko 52 systems] Shinkoiwa Station Tounhoku Area ~ Ichikawa Station
  - [Shinko 52 systems] Shinkoiwa Station Tounhoku Area ~ Kameari Station
  - [Metropolitan Town Bus] [Sou 39 systems] Kanamachi ~ Asakusa Kaminarimonn Leno Station

A football tournament for children under 12 years old. To the work Cooperation with the regions of the country that appear in the original.

Captain TSUBASA Yotsugi Edition

Bronze Statue Map

Half Time
Yotsugi is the town where Takahashi Yoichi, the author of Captain TSUBASA was born and raised.

Half Time
Special Captain TSUBASA buses are found on the national highway route near the Yotsugi Medakano Komichi Lane and on Myroad Yotsugi Shotengai Shopping Street.

1 Arakawa River Bed

2 Statue of Kitazawa Tsuyoshi, a former Japanese national football team player

3 Statue of Hyuga Kojiro

4 Statue of Robert Hongo and Ozora Tsubasa

5 Statue of Nakazawa Sanao

6 Shibusue Park

Statue of Ihizaki Ryo
Invigorates the team with his vigorous play full of fighting spirit and courage. He is famous for his "GAMMEN BLOCK" (face-blocking)** technique, which stops opponents shooting.

Statue of Ozora Tsubasa
Captain TSUBASA, a growing success story of the main character Ozora Tsubasa, has created unprecedented football popularity. As a milestone of football manga, Captain TSUBASA continues to enthral people around the world.

Statue of Nakazawa Sanao
Sanao fell in love with Ozora Tsubasa at first sight, and supports the football team to cheer for him as a member of the cheerleading team with her strong leadership skills.

"Captain TSUBASA" collaboration plan

Katsushika City original illustration of Takahashi Yoichi

Fan must see Tsubasa appeared against the background of real Katsushika!!

"Captain TSUBASA and Katsushika City"
Original author Takahashi Yoichi of "Captain TSUBASA" is from Yotsugi in Katsushika City. The name of the fictional town of Shizuoka Prefecture named Nankatsu City, which is the setting of the work, was named from "Tokyo Minami-Katsushika Senior High School (Katsushika City Tateishi)" where Takahashi sensei graduate. "Captain TSUBASA" is playing an active role as a regional symbol as a place of connection for the author and work!!

1 Arakawa River Bed

2 Yotsugi-Tsubasa Park

Mobile version bronze statue tour kicks off again!
Gather all the stamps and get the "Captain TSUBASA" original frame!

Installation of Katsushika City comprehensive application (Kokoshiru) is necessary to use mobile version bronze statue tour.

Mobile version bronze statue usage method

1. Install Kokoshiru app launch

2. Install "Captain Tsubasa" app

3. Select Tsubasa to complete

4. Select Tsubasa to complete

Notes: *Please note that the use of smart phone while walking is dangerous. **The original frame can be used on SNS, etc., such as individuals and memorial photos, but please refrain from using it other than that. Please note that we can not be responsible for the SNS accident.

Yotsugi Station

At Yotsugi Station, wrapping of the anime "Captain TSUBASA" is applied to the entrance, concourse, stairs, etc. of the station, and the ending song "MoeteHero" is used for the train approach melody.

Myroad Yotsugi shotengai

Myroad Yotsugi Shotengai Shopping Street Information Board

Footprint of Kitazawa Tsuyoshi, a former Japanese national football team player

Trying to get the Point Card that can be used in the Myroad yotsugi shotengai shopping street