Dining—JAPANESE FOOD

Sushi

Sushi is one of the most famous and delicious Japanese dishes. Tokyo has one of the best selections of fresh fish in the world, making it worth to taste.

Tempura

Tempura is made using a batter of flour and water, and usually deep-fried in vegetable oil. Vegetables, fish, and shrimp are common tempura ingredients.

Soba

Soba is a type of noodle made with buckwheat flour, usually served with a dipping sauce or in soy sauce-base soup. It is a traditional Japanese dish that is often Muslim-friendly.

Ramen

Generally, ramen consists of wheat noodles, served in a meat or fish-based broth, topped with sliced pork, eggs, etc., but there are a number of restaurants that offer ramen without pork. There are also vegetarian and vegan ramen shops with the indication of ingredients.

⚠ Be Careful!

Many dishes in Japan may contain alcohol (adding a condiment called “mirin”), pork, or gelatin even if not stated on the menu. This includes major Japanese condiments such as soy sauce and soy sauce-base soup, as they may include alcohol. Some restaurants offer a detailed list of ingredients available for reference. Also, some sushi restaurants can make sushi without mirin (a kind of alcohol) upon request.

Convenience Stores

Some foods contain preservatives and other non-halal ingredients, but there are a variety of affordable and delicious Muslim-friendly options available.

Tips for Getting by Smoothly in Japan

Exploring a new culture can sometimes be both surprising and frustrating. To help navigate any potential difficulties, here are some tips for getting around in Japan.

On the Train Manners in Public

When using public transportation (buses and trains, etc.), avoid speaking loudly or talking on the phone as it may disturb other commuters. Make sure to switch your phone to silent mode. Your phone should be turned off completely if near priority seats when the train is crowded. In inner-city areas, some train cars are reserved for women only during certain hours and days.

On the Street

Littering, smoking on the street, and smoking while walking are strictly prohibited in certain areas. Throw any trash you may have in the public bins provided, or take it home with you. Smokers should only smoke in designated areas.

Using Toilets

- |                   |                      |
|-------------------|----------------------|
| 止 — Stop          | 乾燥 — Drying function |
| おしり — Wash bottom | 大 — Large flush      |
| ビデ — Bidet        | 小 — Small/eco flush  |

Switch your phone to silent mode

Quiet please

Do not throw rubbish

No smoking

A number of public restrooms feature wheelchair-accessible toilets and diaper changing facilities. Many Western-style toilets in Japan have a toilet seat with bidet functions like Washlet with several buttons and icons. A guide to the main functions can be found on the left.

Measures for COVID-19

For visitors to enjoy traveling in Tokyo while avoiding transmission risks, measures for avoiding infection or infecting others are important.

Wear a face mask.

Practice social distancing.

Always remember to wash your hands.

Refrain from conversation in public transport.

Enjoy the food and drink more with less talk.

Begin the day with a health check.

PRAY

Throughout Tokyo, you'll find several places of worship, from majestic dome-ceilinged mosques to prayer rooms owned and operated by Muslims in Tokyo. They also serve as a place of gathering for Muslims who wish to pray together, as well as an ideal way to meet and share information.

Traditional

Taiyaki

Thin pancakes made from wheat flour are stuffed with sweet bean paste and grilled until crispy. Although bean paste is the most common filling, variations containing custard or savory fillings can also be found.

Main ingredients Wheat flour, eggs, dairy, sugar, baking soda, adzuki beans, etc.

Sugar sculpture

Different forms of sugar sculpture can be found all over the world, but in Japan, it has also developed as a kind of street performance. Street entertainers use simple tools like scissors and writing brushes to create colorful works of art on the spot at the customer's request. They're so gorgeous that it almost feels like a shame to eat them!

Main ingredients Sugar, starch syrup, granulated sugar, alternative sweeteners, food coloring, etc.

Shiratama Anmitsu

Regular anmitsu is a dessert in which cubes of agar jelly are topped with sweet red bean paste and honey or brown-sugar syrup. This version is also topped with shiratama, dumplings made of refined glutinous rice flour. You can find even more decadent versions that include ice cream and fruit.

Main ingredients Agar, adzuki beans, sugar, refined glutinous rice flour, etc.

What better way to explore Tokyo than through its delicious desserts? Here's a quick guide to some of the city's best treats, both old and new.

Sweets

Crepes

Originally from France, these thin and slightly crispy pancakes have been on the Tokyo sweets scene since the late 1970s. The trend started in Harajuku and swiftly became a street food staple. Choose from exciting sweet or savory fillings — some shops have over 100 options!

Main ingredients Wheat flour, butter, eggs, whipped cream and fruit

Cotton Candy

Cotton candy can be found across the world, but Tokyo has taken this spun sugar art to new heights. From colorful rainbow towers and spinning tops, these treats are as beautiful as they are delicious. Made in the spirit of traditional sugar sculptors, watching it being made is entertainment in itself.

Main ingredients Sugar, food coloring

Parfait

Similar to an ice cream sundae, the Japanese parfait is an iconic dessert that takes on many forms, which mainly uses ice cream and fresh fruits, sometimes with cornflakes, whipped creams, chocolates, nuts, cereals, and other ingredients. Many restaurants and cafes have their own unique versions.

Main ingredients Ice cream, cornflakes, fresh fruit, whipped cream

Kakigori

Finely shaved ice flavored with syrup. This treat is popular worldwide, especially in Asia, but the current trend in Japan is toward very luxurious varieties, such as shaved ice made from natural spring water and topped with fancy syrups.

Main ingredients Water, syrup, etc.

Dango

Dumplings made by kneading refined glutinous or regular rice flour into balls and boiling them. Mitarashi dango are dumplings served on a skewer and covered with a salty-sweet glaze made of soy sauce, sugar, and starch. There are also special kinds of dango for traditional events like moon viewing and cherry-blossom viewing.

Main ingredients Refined glutinous or regular rice flour, potato starch, sugar, soy sauce, etc.

Nerikiri

The main ingredient in this gorgeous traditional confection is sweet white bean paste, which is easily tinted in different hues and molded into exquisite seasonal shapes. While mochi sweets have mass appeal, nerikiri is prized as a special treat for formal occasions such as the tea ceremony.

Main ingredients White bean, sugar, food coloring, etc.

Old meets New

Cream Kakigori

Though similar to the traditional summer festival kakigori, this shaved ice treat can be found all year-round and is far more decadent. Because of its simplicity it is versatile and many shops experiment with ingredients such as seasonal fruits, condensed milk, matcha and more.

Main ingredients Water, syrup, condensed milk

Candy Apples

A recreation of another festival classic, this apple dipped in syrup is a luxurious and crunchy treat. Modern coatings include cinnamon, cocoa, and even matcha powder. Enjoy it as a street food, or in a stylish cafe.

Main ingredients Apples, light corn syrup, food coloring

Pancakes

Pancakes saw a huge boost in popularity since the late 2000s after an influx of inspiration from Sydney, Hawaii, etc., and Tokyo has never looked back. Many pancake specialty shops serve unique pancakes that are soft, fluffy and melt in your mouth.

Main ingredients Wheat flour, eggs, milk, sugar, whipped cream

Food on the Go: Delivery and Takeout

Delivery

Looking to dine in your room or elsewhere? With several delivery websites and apps to choose from, ordering food online is a quick and convenient option.

Uber Eats

Order dish(es) of your choice from one of the restaurants covered by this service after user registration, and you will receive them from a delivery person. You can order dish(es) from a halal category.

www.ubereats.com/jp-en/category/tokyo-tokyo/halal

Catering services

Reservation required in advance; some requirements apply, such as the minimum number of dishes per order

Place your order of halal bento a few days ahead (*1), you will receive freshly-made or chilled bentos. (*2)

*1: Varies depending on the service, and different restaurants have different deadlines for orders.

*2: Whether the bento is chilled or freshly-made varies depending on the service.

WaO-Bento Kajiya

Taste & Discover Japan

<https://tdjapan.com/>

Takeout

Many restaurants offer dishes to go, often at slightly discounted rates compared to dining in-store. This means you can get a bigger selection of food for a lower price and you can enjoy your meal either in your hotel room, or why not in one of Tokyo's beautiful parks?

Shopping Bags

Since July 2020, most shops in Japan charge a fee (about 2 to 5 yen) for plastic and paper bags. At the cash register, you may be asked “Fukuro wa hitsuyo desu ka?” or “Fukuro wa irimasu ka?”, which means “Do you need a bag?”

Instead of buying a plastic or paper bag every time, bringing “my bag,” which can be used repeatedly, is recommended. As luckily many shops in Tokyo sell fashionable and functional “eco bags,” choose your favorite bag and enjoy shopping in an eco-friendly manner!

Transportation Guide

Useful tips on how to get around the city during your stay.

Trains & Buses

Convenient IC cards

After buying a new card with an advance payment, you can pass the ticket barrier by touching the automatic ticket gate or bus ticket reading machine with the IC card (Suica, PASMO, etc.) and the fare will be deducted automatically. In addition, fares are usually lower than when purchasing tickets at ticket machines in Tokyo (fares are the same in some cases). The card can also be used as electronic money for shopping at registered shops.

PASMO® Registered in JPO

www.gotokyo.org/en/plan/getting-around/ic-card/

● Tokyo 1-Day Ticket

Unlimited travel on JR trains*, subways, the Nippori-Toneri Liner, Tokyo Sakura Tram (Toden Arakawa Line) and Toei buses.

*JR East trains within Tokyo's 23 cities.

1,600 yen (adults), 800 yen (children)

Taxis

The taxi fare in Japan depends on the running distance and time, and paying tips is not necessary. It is recommended to use a time-based sightseeing taxi that a certified taxi driver tours around Tokyo with sightseeing guiding. Even though you may buy a lot of souvenirs and thus increase your baggage, you will feel comfortable by using a taxi.

www.taxi-tokyo.or.jp/english/kanko\_taxi/

Rental Bicycles

Using a rental cycle service is a good way to avoid public transportation congestion. Pedaling along the road with the feel of a breeze, you can see local shopping streets and the life of local Tokyoites up-close. It will show you another aspect of Tokyo.

In addition to a conventional service in which you rent a bike at one rental shop and return to the same shop, new and convenient services have been increasing in Tokyo in recent years, such as a share cycle service with many cycle ports in which you can return a rental bike to a port different from the one where you rented, and a delivering service by which you can receive a bike at a place convenient for you.

● Tokyo Bike Sharing

https://docomo-cycle.jp/tokyo-project/en\_index.html

There are other services, too, so choose according to your purpose and area.

SHOP

Shopping is one of the highlights of any trip, isn't it?

Tokyo is absolutely packed with department stores, specialty shops, tax-free stores, and much more.

There are even shops that sell halal foods and ingredients for Muslim shoppers.

They're great for cooking if you're staying in a guest house, or for bringing home as souvenirs.

Don't miss your chance!

Staying calm and taking the necessary steps

What To Do in an Emergency

This information will help you in the event of disasters such as earthquakes, storms, floods, or fires, theft, lost items, and other emergencies.

Earthquakes

What to do

If you feel shaking from an earthquake, remain calm and take steps to protect your body. Act in an orderly manner; do not panic or run.

How to protect yourself

●Indoors

Watch out for objects that may fall or topple over. Stay away from anything made of glass such as windows, TVs, or furniture, and protect your body by crouching under a table, etc. Once the shaking has subsided, make sure the gas is turned off and there are no sources of fire. Open doors or windows so that you can evacuate if necessary. Wear slippers or shoes indoors if there are fallen objects.

●Outdoors

Make sure you are not near any objects that may fall or topple over. Protect your head using your bag, etc. If you are inside an underground shopping complex and the power goes out, do not panic nor rush for the exit. Instead, wait for the shaking to subside, and then move along the walls toward the emergency exit.

If you are inside an elevator

As soon as you feel any shaking, press the buttons for all of the floors and get off wherever the elevator stops. If you are trapped inside the elevator, use the intercom to call for help. Do not use elevators to evacuate, since you can become trapped inside due to aftershocks or power outages.

Watch out for tsunamis!

An earthquake may be followed by a tsunami. Stay away from waterfronts and low-lying ground. If you are near the sea, immediately flee toward nearby high ground, a tsunami evacuation building, or a taller structure. Tsunamis can also travel against the current of a river. Flee in a direction perpendicular to the river.

Watch out for aftershocks!

A strong earthquake may be followed by multiple aftershocks. Be careful, as aftershocks may cause landslides or the collapse of buildings.

Storms/Floods

Heavy Rain/Violent Storms

Pay attention to weather information. In the event of heavy rain, stay away from rivers and underpasses. If you are near a cliff, watch out for landslides.

Be careful not to fall into open manholes or gutters. If you are in an area that is underground or partially underground and there is a danger of flooding, move to a safe location above ground.

Tornadoes

If you are indoors, close any storm shutters and/or curtains, move away from the windows, and crouch under a sturdy table, etc. If you are outdoors, take shelter inside an underground facility or a sturdy structure made of a material like reinforced concrete, and wait for the tornado to pass.

Fires

What to do

If you notice a fire, alert those around you by shouting "Fire!" (Kaji da!) and dial 119 for the fire department. Cover your mouth and nose with a handkerchief, etc. so that you do not breathe in smoke, and stay close to the ground as you move. If you cannot see your surroundings due to smoke, move along the walls. If you are inside a hotel, etc., follow the instructions of staff.

Theft/Lost Items

Report the matter to the police, who will issue a certificate of theft or loss. If you accidentally left an item on a train or bus or inside a taxi, contact the respective operating company.

If your passport is stolen or lost

Contact your country's embassy or consulate to have the passport invalidated and issue an emergency passport or travel document for returning to your home country.

www.mofa.go.jp/about/emb\_cons/protocol/

If your credit card is stolen or lost

Immediately call the credit-card company's emergency hotline to cancel your card.

Evacuation signage for different types of disasters

When walking around Tokyo, you will probably notice many signs indicating locations or facilities where you should evacuate. When you are near rivers or the sea, also keep an eye out for signage on how to escape a tsunami.
