New Tokyo night spots mean more fun

TOKYO
NEW Spot

More and more spots are opening for even more nighttime fun in Tokyo.
Discover brand new ways to spend nights in Tokyo.

A large commercial complex resembling a town

Ariake Garden

有明ガーデン

This large commercial complex not only offers shopping and foods; but also a wide range of facilities including a theater that seats up to 8,000 and a hot spring spa for enjoying natural hot spring baths. Terraces in four locations provide beautiful views of the bay at night. We especially recommend the Water Terrace on the 5th floor that features a fountain.

● Shopping/Services 10:00–21:00, Restaurants/Food Court 11:00–23:00 *Business hours differ for some shops. Check the official website for details.

You can dine while looking out on the Water Terrace at Schmatz Beer Dining on the 5th floor of the mall.

Izumi Tenku no Yu Ariake Garden has an open-air bath and hot stone sauna, and is open 24 hours a day. (Entry from 5:00–1:00 the next day; closed to entry 1:00–5:00)

A restaurant area that energizes the entire floor

Asakusa Yokocho Food and Festival Hall

MAP → P29

食と祭の殿堂浅草横町

Vibrant decor and signs throughout the alley give a fresh feel to a collection of unique pubs. On weekends, festivals from all over Japan are introduced and street performers create a lively scene.

●12:00-23:00

(Differs for some shops;
Kimono Rental Wargo
opens at 10:00)

The entire floor is a colorful experience. There are also photo spots for taking Instagrammable pics.

An underpass spot catering to adult tastes

Hibiya OKUROJI

日比谷OKUROJI

MAP → P11

The commercial facility is located at an underpass between JR Yurakucho Station and Shimbashi Station. You'd never guess that a cluster of hidden gems such as restaurants, clothing stores, and shops selling miscellaneous goods are tucked away below an underpass.

●Business hours differ by shop

Pass through an arched entrance into a different world.

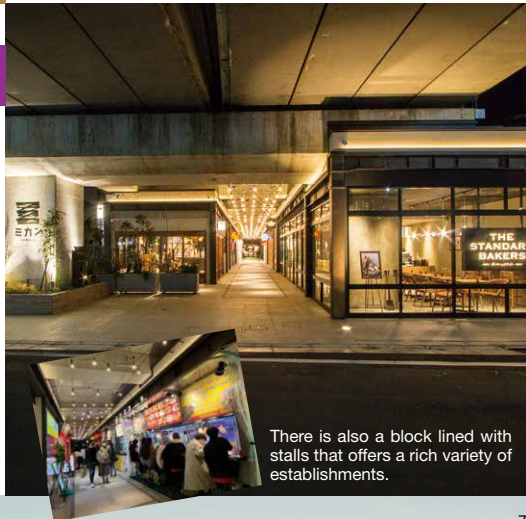

Epitomizing the ever-evolving Shimokitazawa

Mikan Shimokita

ミカン下北

Created below an underpass along the Keio Inokashira Line in 2022, the neighborhood is composed of five blocks with a jumbled assembly of small stores such as secondhand and accessory shops, restaurants, a bookstore, and workspaces. At night, restaurants are crowded with diners.

●Business hours differ by shop

There is also a block lined with stalls that offers a rich variety of establishments.

TOKYO NIGHT VIEW & ENTERTAINMENT

The Heart of Tokyo! Ginza, Yurakucho, Tokyo Station area

This area, where the iconic buildings and streets of Tokyo converge, is the birthplace of activity and trends. Catch a glimpse of the true face of the Tokyo of today, a blend of tradition and the cutting edge.
