Let's go looking for the Namisuke manhole covers!

- When seeking out manhole covers, take care not to obstruct fellow pedestrians. We would appreciate it if you did not loiter in these areas for long periods of time.
- Some detail is omitted for ease of understanding.

Ogikubo and Nishi-Ogikubo AREA

Suginami City Walking Map

● For information about this event, please refer to the Suginami website or the official event website.

Tekigaiso DESIGN

The historic "Tekigaiso" (the former residence of Prime Minister Fumimaro Konoe), has been restored to its original appearance. This National Historic Site, known for hosting a number of critical political meetings leading up to World War II, is open for visitors.

Ōtaguro Park DESIGN

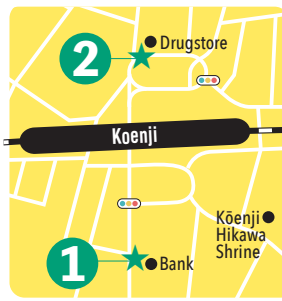

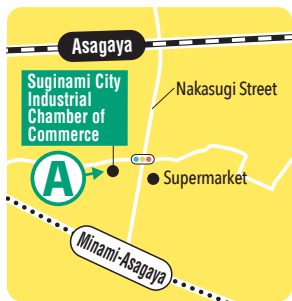

This is a Japanese garden with Western-style buildings and lines of ginkgo trees that are over a hundred years old! In the fall, the seasonal colors are lit up to provide a truly magical experience!

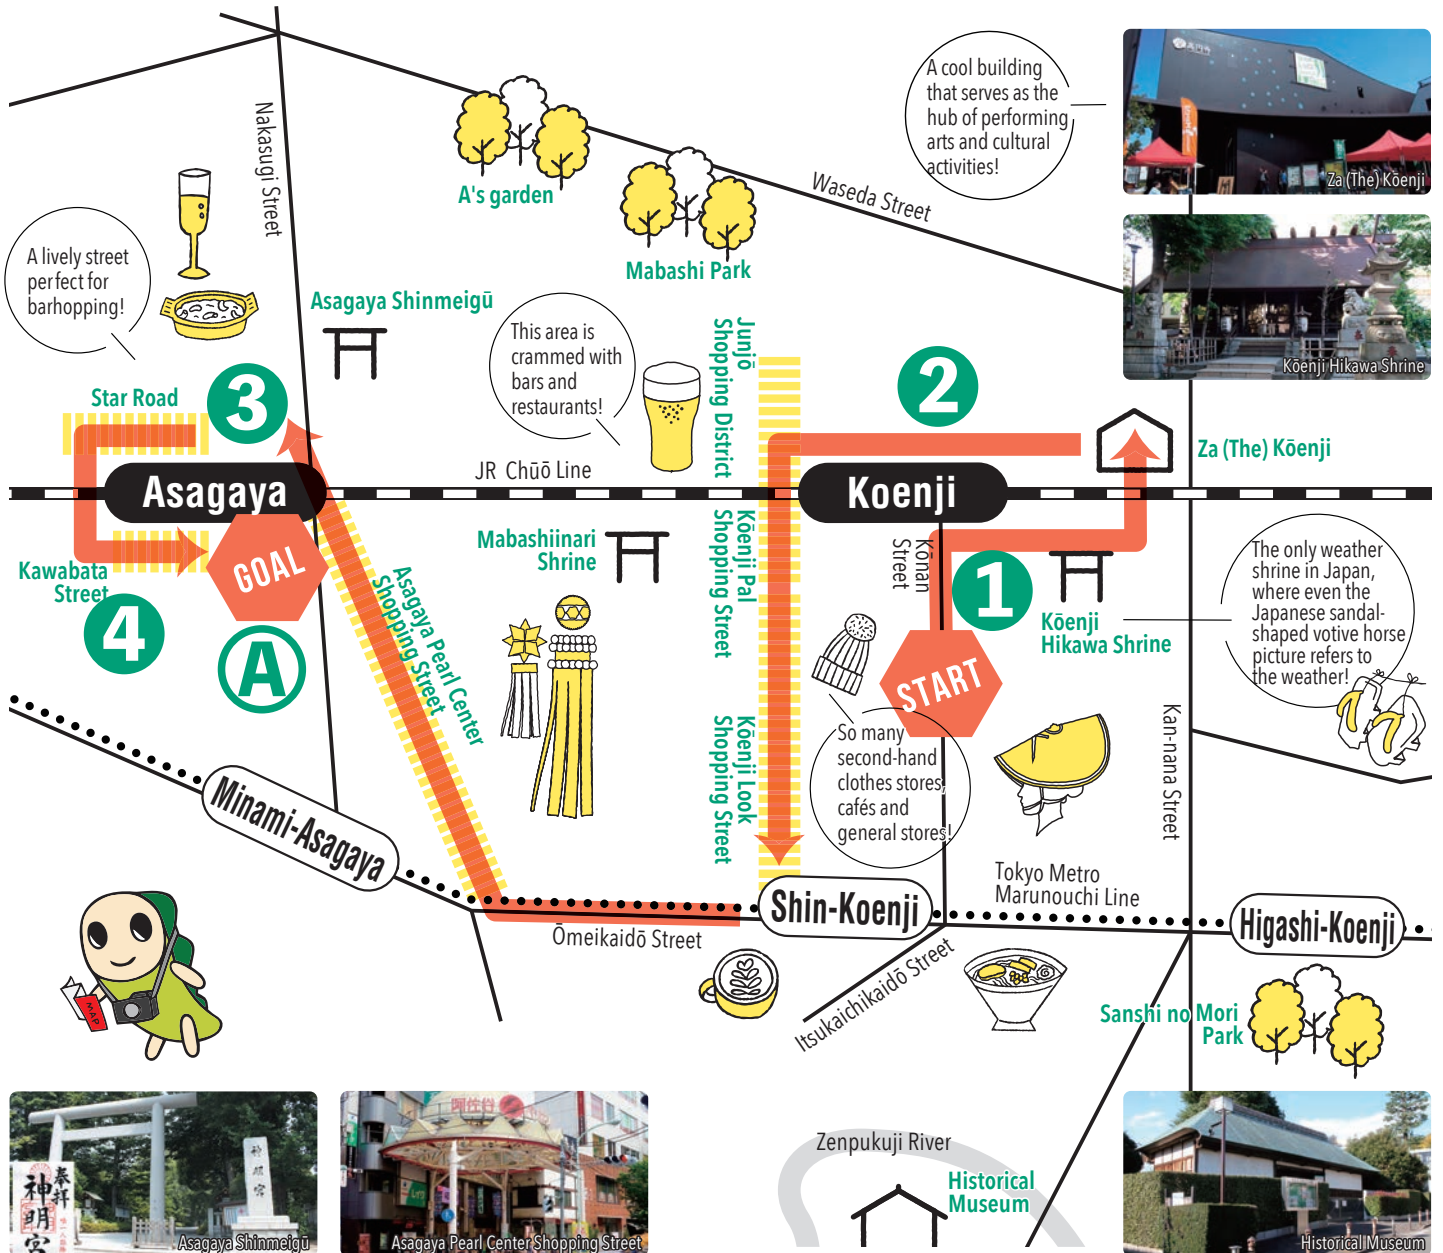

Suginami Animation Museum DESIGN

As the heart of Japanese anime, Suginami offers a unique opportunity to learn about the entirety of Japanese animation. There is so much to experience, learn and enjoy here, including exhibitions that feature special animations!

Kōenji and Asagaya AREA

Asagaya Tanabata Festival DESIGN

This festival sees Asagaya decorated with traditional papier mâché decorations and streamers inspired by the year's trends and ideas made by local stores to fill the streets with smiles! [Held in August]

Asagaya Jazz Streets DESIGN

This is an incredible event that fills the streets of Asagaya with jazz! Around 70 venues take part, including restaurants, churches and shrines! [Held in October]

Tokyo Kōenji Awaodori Festival DESIGN

This is a Tokyo summer tradition that brings together 10,000 dancers and a million spectators! Come and enjoy this festival that unites Kōenji through the power of the Awaodori dance! [Held in August]
