Tips Tokyo sightseeing guide by scene

Here you'll find tips about Japanese culture and Muslim-friendly dining options, as well as information on Tokyo's efficient transport system and diverse accommodation facilities.

Dining

● Points to note when eating

Be cautious with Japanese dishes, as many may contain alcohol, pork, or gelatin. Some restaurants provide ingredient lists and offer alcohol-free food options. Additionally, convenience stores offer a variety of affordable Muslim-friendly food choices.

● Certification

This confirms that ingredients, preparation, storage, staff training, and management comply with Islamic law, helping Muslim travelers to dine with confidence. Several organizations in Japan provide halal certification. Look for this mark on menus and food packaging.

Around town

● How to use the toilet

Many public restrooms in Japan are equipped with wheelchair-accessible toilets and diaper-changing tables, making them convenient for those with mobility needs and families. Many toilets also have a washlet function, which provides added comfort and cleanliness.

Do not litter

No smoking

● Garbage and Smoking

Littering, smoking on the street, and smoking while walking are strictly prohibited in certain areas. Throw any trash into the public bins or take it home with you. Smokers should only smoke in designated areas and dispose of ash only in the ashtrays.

Transportation / Stay

● Transportation

Train

On public transportation, keep conversations quiet and silence your phone. Turn off your phone completely in priority seating areas on crowded trains. Note that some train cars in inner-city areas are reserved for women during specific hours and days.

Bus

Board buses through the designated entrance (usually the front) and pay with cash or an IC card. Check the fare chart for rates. Keep phones silent and conversations quiet and to a minimum. English announcements may be available, but it helps to know your destination in Japanese.

Taxi

Taxi fares in Japan start with a base rate and increase with distance and time. Taxis are clean and have automatic doors. Please sit in the rear seat. For a smoother ride, show a Japanese address or your navigation app.

● Stay

Accommodation information ➡ Please see page 49

Hotels

Tokyo offers a wide range of hotels, from classic luxury hotels to uniquely Japanese capsule hotels with compact sleeping pods at budget-friendly rates. You'll find plenty of choices for both rooms and dining.

Ryokan

Experience authentic Japanese hospitality at a traditional inn or ryokan. Stay in Japanese rooms with tatami floors and shoji screens, wear yukata robes, savor seasonal cuisine, and relax in hot springs or communal baths.

Guesthouses

Mainly offering dormitory-style accommodation at affordable prices, guesthouses usually have shared kitchens and common areas where you can meet and connect with travelers from around the world.

Please check the booklet "HOW TO ENJOY TOKYO!" for information on manners and customs.

PRAY

Scattered across Tokyo, you'll discover an array of Islamic sanctuaries, ranging from grand mosques to intimate prayer spaces run by the city's Muslim community. These sites not only offer a place of worship, but also serve as vibrant hubs where fellow Muslims can connect and exchange ideas as a community in the heart of Japan's bustling capital.

A Japanese
Chicken Classic!

唐揚げ /
KARA-AGE

Said to have originated in Tokyo's Ginza district, kara-age is chicken marinated in soy sauce and garlic, then deep-fried to perfection. Every bite offers juicy meat with a crispy coating.

Traditional
dish

Why Add Lemon?

Kara-age often comes with lemon wedges. The citrus cuts through the richness and helps reduce fat absorption.

A real food wonderland!

Sushi with Soy-Marinated Fish

島寿司 /
SHIMA-ZUSHI

From the Izu Islands to the south, shima-zushi (island sushi) features fish marinated in soy sauce, originally as a preservation method. Because of its glossiness, it's sometimes called bekko-zushi (tortoiseshell sushi).

人形焼 /
NINGYO-YAKI

Originating in Nihonbashi-Ningyocho, ningyo-yaki are traditional baked sweets shaped like figures and animals. Some featuring the Seven Lucky Gods are said to bring good luck and are especially popular.

Traditional
dish

Conger Eel Tempura

穴子の一本揚げ / Deep fried conger eel

Conger eel is a classic tempura ingredient. Deep fried whole, it's fluffy and tender with a rich, savory flavor. Tokyo Bay, particularly the waters off Haneda, is renowned for its conger eel fishing.

Traditional
dish

A Tokyo Hot Plate Favorite

もんじゃ焼き / MONJA-YAKI

Most associated with the Tsukishima area, monja-yaki is a mix of batter and ingredients like cabbage, seafood, and cheese cooked on a hot plate. It's usually shared, and everyone carves off small bites with a little spatula.

深川めし / FUKAGAWA-MESHI

A local specialty started by fishermen in the Fukagawa district of today's Koto City. There are two styles: takikomi—rice cooked with clams and their broth—and bukkake—clams and green onions in miso poured over white rice.

A Part of Edo Culture?

Donburi (rice bowls) have long been popular quick meals for busy Tokyo workers. Many types were born here, like gyudon (beef bowl) and oyakodon (chicken and egg bowl).

Staying calm and taking the necessary steps

What to Do in an Emergency

This information will help you in the event of disasters such as earthquakes, storms, floods, fires, theft, lost items, and other emergencies.

Earthquakes

●What to do

If you feel shaking from an earthquake, remain calm and take steps to protect your body. Act in an orderly manner; do not panic or run.

●How to protect yourself (Indoors)

Watch out for objects that may fall or topple over. Stay away from anything made of glass such as windows, TVs, or furniture, and protect your body by crouching under a table, etc. Once the shaking has subsided, make sure the gas is turned off and there are no sources of fire. Open doors or windows so that you can evacuate if necessary. Wear slippers or shoes indoors if there are fallen objects.

(Outdoors)

Make sure you are not near any objects that may fall or topple over. Protect your head using your bag, etc. If you are inside an underground shopping complex and the power goes out, do not panic or rush for the exit. Instead, wait for the shaking to subside and then move along the walls toward the emergency exit.

●If you are inside an elevator

As soon as you feel any shaking, press the buttons for all of the floors and get off wherever the elevator stops. If you are trapped inside the elevator, use the intercom to call for help. Do not use elevators to evacuate, since you can become trapped inside due to aftershocks or power outages.

●Watch out for tsunamis!

An earthquake may be followed by a tsunami. Stay away from waterfronts and low-lying ground. If you are near the sea, immediately flee toward nearby high ground, a tsunami evacuation building, or a taller structure. Tsunamis can also travel against the current of a river. Flee in a direction perpendicular to the river.

●Watch out for aftershocks!

A strong earthquake may be followed by multiple aftershocks. Be careful, as aftershocks may cause landslides or the collapse of buildings.

Storms/Floods & Heatstroke

●Heavy Rain/Violent Storms

Pay attention to weather information. In the event of heavy rain, stay away from rivers and underpasses. If you are near a cliff, watch out for landslides. If you are in an underground area and there is a danger of flooding, move to a safe location above ground.

●Tornadoes

If you are indoors, close any storm shutters and/or curtains, move away from the windows, and crouch under a sturdy table, etc. If you are outdoors, take shelter inside a sturdy structure or an underground facility, and wait for the tornado to pass.

●Typhoons

Typhoon season is from May to October, peaking in July–September. In a typhoon, avoid bodies of water and secure all windows and doors. Check your local evacuation plan in case of severe flooding.

●Heat Safety

Stay hydrated, replenish salt levels, and use a hat or parasol for sun protection. If you experience symptoms of heatstroke, move to a cool place, cool your body down, and rehydrate with water and salt. If symptoms don't improve, call 119.

Evacuation Shelters

●What are evacuation shelters?

Evacuation shelters are spaces that temporarily accept and shelter people who have been forced to leave their homes due to a disaster. They also provide disaster-related information and essential supplies like water. Evacuation shelters are usually located inside a public facility such as a school and accept foreigners.

●Notes on evacuating

When evacuating, travel on foot and take as little with you as possible. Make sure you have valuables such as your passport or residence card, mobile phone, and charger.

●Evacuation signage for different types of disasters

When walking around Tokyo, you will see many signs with locations or facilities where you should evacuate. When you are near rivers or the sea, also keep an eye out for signage on how to escape a tsunami.

In case of theft or loss...

Contact the respective operating company if you accidentally left an item on a train or bus or inside a taxi. Report the matter to the police, who will issue a certificate of theft or loss.

●If your passport is stolen or lost

Contact your country's embassy or consulate to have the passport invalidated and issue an emergency passport or travel document for returning to your home country.

●If your credit card is stolen or lost

Immediately call the credit card company's emergency hotline to cancel your card.

ATMs and currency exchange

Although Japan has made progress towards cashless payments, many establishments still prefer cash, so it is best to prepare some yen for when you travel.

●ATMs

Post offices and convenience store ATMs allow you to take out cash with certain credit cards, but not every type of card is accepted. Be sure to research in advance to know which cards are acceptable.

●Currency Exchange

International airports are the most reliable place to exchange currency. You can also find currency exchange machines and licensed counters in various parts of the city.

What's more, all of them have English-speaking staff. Enjoy your time in Tokyo with added peace of mind!

*Due to working schedules, we cannot guarantee that female doctors or English-speaking staff are available 24 hours a day.

*Please contact the facility you intend to visit by phone and speak to the staff before arriving.
